CHAPTER 138

An act to add Section 14534.1 to the Government Code, relating to the California Transportation Commission.

[Approved by Governor July 17, 2012. Filed with
Secretary of State July 17, 2012.]

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 1458, Buchanan. California Transportation Commission.

Existing law establishes in state government the California Transportation Commission with specified powers, duties, and functions relative to transportation matters. The Governor's Reorganization Plan No. 2 of 2012 (GRP 2) proposes to establish the Transportation Agency, which would include various departments and state entities, including the commission. GRP 2 is proposed to become operative on July 1, 2013, if not disapproved by the Legislature in accordance with specified procedures.

This bill would provide that the commission retain independent authority to perform its powers, duties, and functions. The bill would provide that the above-described provisions would become operative on July 1, 2013, and only if GRP 2 takes effect.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SEC. 2. (a) Section 1 of this act shall become operative only if the Governor's Reorganization Plan No. 2 of 2012 becomes effective.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (a), Section 1 of this act shall become operative on July 1, 2013.

(c) Section 1 of this act shall prevail over any provision of the Governor's Reorganization Plan No. 2 of 2012, regardless of the dates on which this act and that plan take effect.
