

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 2395

Introduced by Assembly Member Davis

February 24, 2012

An act to amend Section 300 of the Business and Professions Code, relating to consumer affairs.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 2395, as introduced, Davis. Consumer affairs.

Existing law, the Consumer Affairs Act, provides authority to the Director of Consumer Affairs to take specified actions to protect and promote the interests of consumers in the state.

This bill would make technical, nonsubstantive changes to the provision naming that act.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. Section 300 of the Business and Professions Code
- 2 is amended to read:
- 3 300. This chapter may be known, and cited, as the Consumer
- 4 Affairs Act.
