CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE—2013–14 REGULAR SESSION

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 157

An act to amend Section 6320 of the Family Code, relating to protective orders.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 157, as amended, Campos. Protective orders: ~~false impersonation.~~ credibly impersonating and falsely personating.

Existing law authorizes a court to issue an ex parte order enjoining a party from engaging in specified acts against another party, including threatening or harassing that party, and, in the discretion of the court, against other named family or household members. A violation of this court order constitutes contempt of court, which is punishable as a misdemeanor.

This bill would additionally authorize a court to issue an ex parte order enjoining a party from credibly impersonating or ~~falsely impersonating~~ personating another party.

Because a violation of this court order would be punishable as contempt, a misdemeanor, this bill would create a new crime and would thereby impose a state-mandated local program.

The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes.
State-mandated local program: yes.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 6320 of the Family Code is amended to
2 read:

3 6320. (a) The court may issue an ex parte order enjoining a
4 party from molesting, attacking, striking, stalking, threatening,
5 sexually assaulting, battering, credibly impersonating as described
6 in Section 528.5 of the Penal Code, ~~falsely impersonating,~~
7 ~~personating as described in Section 529 of the Penal Code,~~
8 harassing, telephoning, including, but not limited to, making
9 annoying telephone calls as described in Section 653m of the Penal
10 Code, destroying personal property, contacting, either directly or 11 indirectly, by mail or otherwise, coming within a specified distance
12 of, or disturbing the peace of the other party, and, in the discretion
13 of the court, on a showing of good cause, of other named family
14 or household members.

15 (b) On a showing of good cause, the court may include in a
16 protective order a grant to the petitioner of the exclusive care,
17 possession, or control of any animal owned, possessed, leased,
18 kept, or held by either the petitioner or the respondent or a minor
19 child residing in the residence or household of either the petitioner
20 or the respondent. The court may order the respondent to stay away
21 from the animal and forbid the respondent from taking, transferring,
22 encumbering, concealing, molesting, attacking, striking,
23 threatening, harming, or otherwise disposing of the animal.

24 SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act pursuant to 25 Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution because 26 the only costs that may be incurred by a local agency or school
27 district will be incurred because this act creates a new crime or
28 infraction, eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty
29 for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section 17556 of 30 the Government Code, or changes the definition of a crime within
31 the meaning of Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California
32 Constitution.
