Introduced by Senator De León

February 21, 2014

An act to amend Section 2928 of the Labor Code, relating to employees.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 1402, as introduced, De León. Employees: wage deductions.

Existing law prohibits a deduction from the wages of an employee, on account of the employee coming late to work, in excess of the proportionate wage that would have been earned during the time actually lost, except for authorizing the deduction of ½-hour's wage for a loss of time of less than 30 minutes.

This bill would make technical, nonsubstantive changes to those provisions.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. Section 2928 of the Labor Code is amended to
2 read:
3 2928. No deduction from the wages of an employee on account
4 of his or her coming late to work shall be made in excess of the 5 proportionate wage ~~which~~ that would have been earned during the 6 time actually lost, but for a loss of time less than ~~thirty~~ 30 minutes,
7 a ~~half~~ one-half hour's wage may be deducted.
