LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 387, as amended, Jackson. State Bar: attorneys: annual membership fees: meetings: public records.

Existing law, the State Bar Act, provides for the licensure and regulation of attorneys by the State Bar of California, a public corporation. The State Bar is governed by a board of trustees. Existing law authorizes the board, among other duties, to aid in all matters pertaining to the improvement of the administration of justice, including all matters that may advance the professional interests of the members of the State Bar.

Existing law requires the State Bar to issue an Annual Discipline Report describing the performance and condition of the State Bar discipline system. Existing law requires the report to cover the previous calendar year and to include accurate and complete descriptions of, among other things, the existing backlog of cases within the discipline system and a description of the programs at the State Bar directed at preventing acts warranting discipline. Existing law requires the board to appoint a lawyer admitted to practice in California to serve as chief trial counsel. The Office of the Chief Trial Counsel, which is responsible for reviewing charges of lawyer misconduct, investigates and prosecutes complaints about attorneys.

This bill would revise the content of the information in the report. The bill would additionally require the backlog of cases to include other matters opened in the Office of the Chief Trial Counsel and pending beyond 6 months after receipt, as specified.

Existing law, until January 1, 2016, requires the board to charge an annual membership fee for active members of up to $315 for 2015.

This bill would, until January 1, 2017, require the board to charge that annual membership fee for 2016.

Existing law requires the State Bar to review its workload standards to measure the effectiveness and efficiency of its disciplinary activities, including, but not limited to, the State Bar Court and the Client Security Fund, and to provide guidance to the State Bar and the Legislature in allocating resources, as specified.

This bill would delete that requirement. The bill would, instead, require the State Bar to develop and implement a specified workforce plan for its discipline system and conduct a public sector compensation and benefits study to reassess the numbers and classifications of staff required to conduct the disciplinary activities. The bill would require the State Bar to conduct a thorough analysis of its operating costs and develop a spending plan to determine a reasonable amount for the annual membership fee, as specified. The bill would require the State Bar to report to the Legislature by May 15, 2016.

Existing law requires the board to engage the services of an independent public accounting firm for an audit of its financial statement for each fiscal year.

This bill would require, effective January 1, 2016, the State Bar to contract with the California State Auditor's Office to conduct an in-depth financial audit of the State Bar, including an audit of its financial statement, internal controls, and relevant management practices, as provided, and would require the office to provide a copy of the audit to the board, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, and to the Assembly and Senate Committees on Judiciary.

Under existing law, no law of this state restricting or prescribing a mode of procedure for the exercise of powers of state public bodies or state agencies is applicable to the State Bar, unless the Legislature expressly so declares. Except as specified, existing law requires every meeting of the board to be open to the public.

Existing law, the Bagley-Keene Open Meeting Act, requires that all meetings of a state body be open and public and that all persons be permitted to attend any meeting of a state body, subject to certain conditions and exceptions. A violation of these provisions is a misdemeanor.

Existing law exempts the board from the act, but requires the board to ensure that its open meeting requirements are consistent with, and conform to, the Bagley-Keene Open Meeting Act.

Existing law, the California Public Records Act, requires state and local agencies to make public records available for inspection, subject to certain exceptions.

This bill, commencing April 1, 2016, would make the State Bar subject to the Bagley-Keene Open Meeting Act. The bill would provide that the Bagley-Keene Open Meeting Act does not apply to the Judicial Nominees Evaluation Commission or the Committee of Bar Examiners. By expanding the scope of that crime, the bill would impose a state-mandated local program. The bill would also make the State Bar subject to the California Public Records Act. The bill would require any identifying information submitted by an applicant to the State Bar for admission and a license to practice law and all State Bar admission records to be confidential and would prohibit disclosure pursuant to any state law, including the California Public Records Act. The bill would make other conforming changes in this regard.

This bill would incorporate additional changes in Section 11121 of the Government Code proposed by AB 85 that would become operative only if AB 85 and this bill are both chaptered and become effective on or before January 1, 2016, and this bill is chaptered last.

Existing constitutional provisions require that a statute that limits the right of access to the meetings of public bodies or the writings of public officials and agencies be adopted with findings demonstrating the interest protected by the limitation and the need for protecting that interest.

This bill would make legislative findings to that effect.

The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes.

State-mandated local program: yes.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 6001 of the Business and Professions
2 Code is amended to read:

12 information not reasonably related to regulatory purposes. On or 13 before May 1, 2005, the State Bar shall report to the Assembly

17 regulatory purposes, and the number of members choosing to 18 utilize these procedures.

20 procedure for the exercise of powers of state public bodies or state
21 agencies, or classes thereof, including, but not by way of limitation,
22 the provisions contained in Division 3 (commencing with Section
23 11000), Division 4 (commencing with Section 16100), and Part 1
24 (commencing with Section 18000) and Part 2 (commencing with 25 Section 18500) of Division 5, of Title 2 of the Government Code,
26 shall be applicable to the State Bar, unless the Legislature expressly 27 so declares. Notwithstanding the foregoing or any other law,

38 concerning a member of the State Bar which is otherwise a matter
39 of public record, including civil or criminal filings and dispositions.

33 to the competence or performance of its members, provided that
34 these records shall remain confidential and shall not be disclosed
35 pursuant to any state law, including, but not limited to, the 36 California Public Records Act (Chapter 3.5 (commencing with 37 Section 6250) of Division 7 of Title 1 of the Government Code).
38 This access, for investigation and enforcement purposes, shall not 39 be limited by any court order sealing those records, except a court
40 order authorized by Section 851.6, 851.7, 851.8, or 851.85 of the

1 Penal Code. The State Bar may disclose publicly the nature and 2 content of those records, including sealed records other than those
3 specified immediately above in this section, after notice of intention
4 to disclose all or a part of the records has been given to the parties
5 in the underlying action. A party to the underlying action who
6 would be adversely affected by the disclosure may serve notice
7 on the State Bar within 10 days of receipt of the notice of intention 8 to disclose the records that it opposes the disclosure and will seek
9 a hearing in the court of competent jurisdiction on an expedited
10 basis.

6 been paid or reimbursed for the full cost of any administrative and

8 collection of fees or donations on its behalf, and that no mandatory
9 dues are being used to fund the activities of the successor entity.

10 In selecting the accounting firm, the board shall consider the 11 value of continuity, along with the risk that continued long-term
12 engagements of an accounting firm may affect the independence
13 of that firm.

14 (b) The board shall contract with the California State Auditor's

28 For the purposes of this subdivision, the California State
29 Auditor's Office may contract with a third party to conduct the

34 California State Auditor's Office to conduct an in-depth financial

37 shall include reimbursement for the California State Auditor's
38 Office for the costs of conducting the audit. The audit shall, at a 39 minimum, examine the revenues, expenditures, and reserves of 40 the State Bar, including all fund transfers. The California State

1 Auditor's Office shall commence the audit no later than January
2 1, 2016, and a copy of the audit shall be submitted by May 15,
3 2016, to the board, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, and to 4 the Assembly and Senate Committees on Judiciary. The audit shall
